1976 LYNX

SPEARMAN PUBLIC SCHOOLS
SPEARMAN, TEXAS 79081

FOREWORD

We, The Lynx Annual Staff, are proud to be presenting to you our 31st edition of the Lynx in 1976, the year of our country's 200th birthday. We are proud of the fact that we are students of Spearman High School, citizens of Spearman, Texas and most important of all - Americans!

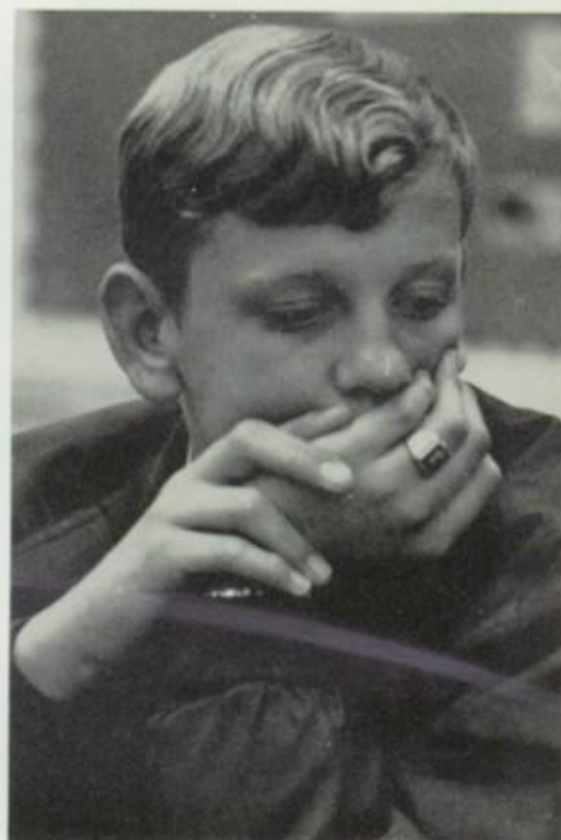

We feel that the spirit that helped our forefathers to establish this country that we are so proud of, is the same spirit that is depicted today in the spirit of the students of the Spearman Schools. Spirit is present in all of the ordinary things in life that we do, such as watching parades, cheering our teams, running for school office, studying, smiling, frowning, yawning, reading, talking, and going about the job of being spirited Americans.

The 1976 Lynx will take you through the halls of our schools built by Americans who wanted to foster the spirit of '76.

Lynx Annual Staff

Some of us seem to have more spirit . . .

. . . than others at times.

Full of school spirit, L. Greene works on her algebra assignment.

TITLE PAGE PICTURE: Old Glory and the Flag of Texas fly over our school every school day of the year. Posed with the Flags are, C. Smith, M. Ladd, D. Ochoa, S. Johnson, D. Pope, and B. Wadsworth.

LIVES IN THE LYNX OF 1976

A bird's-eye view of the new Lynx football stadium.

J. Meisner, D. Steele, and C. Collier treat the pep rally with as much seriousness as they treat the game.

J. Avila can't believe the sour notes that are coming out of A. Garza's drum.

Spearman's first high school was built in 1930 and the present building was built in 1962. Prior to 1930, the students of the county attended many small schools throughout the county. The students of today are proud of S.H.S. because of so many years of pride and spirit in its history.

P. Archer is one of the typical spirit-filled leaders of S.H.S.

K. Gilley drives her car in the parade.

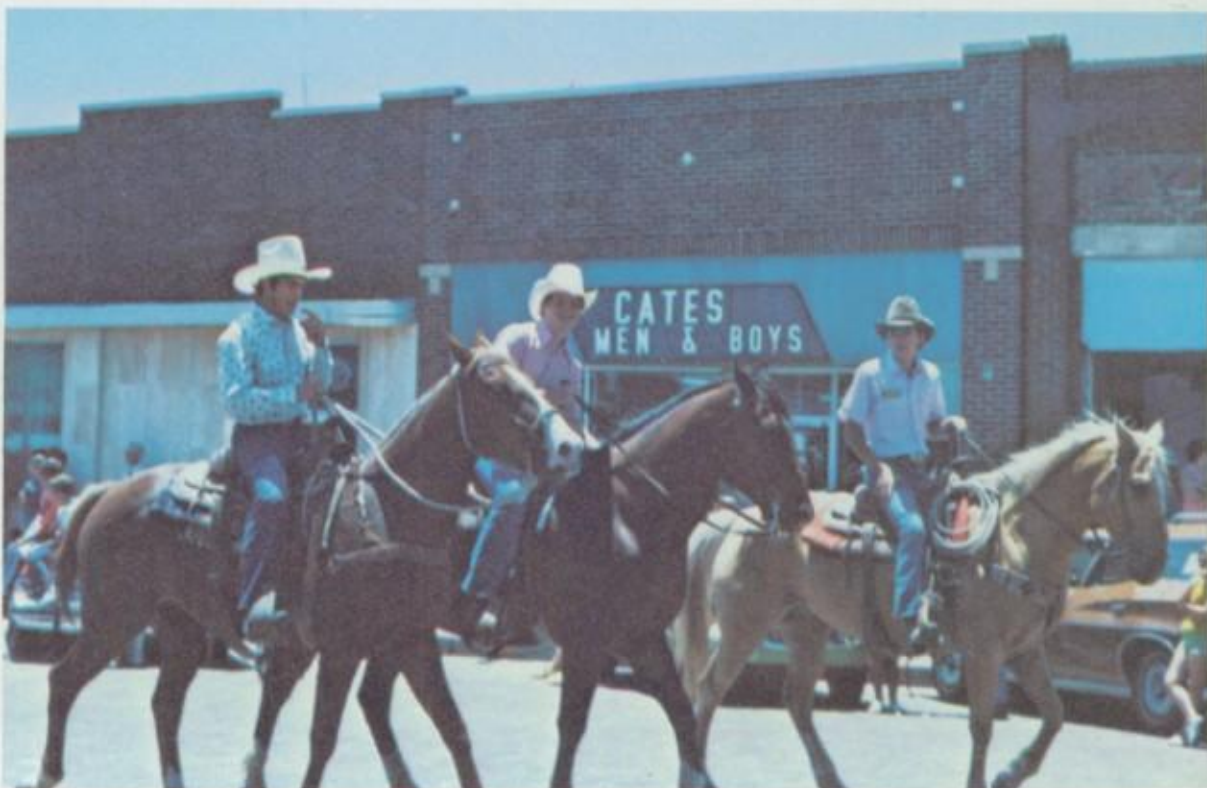

D. Steele and T. Evans warm up before the opening game against Stratford.

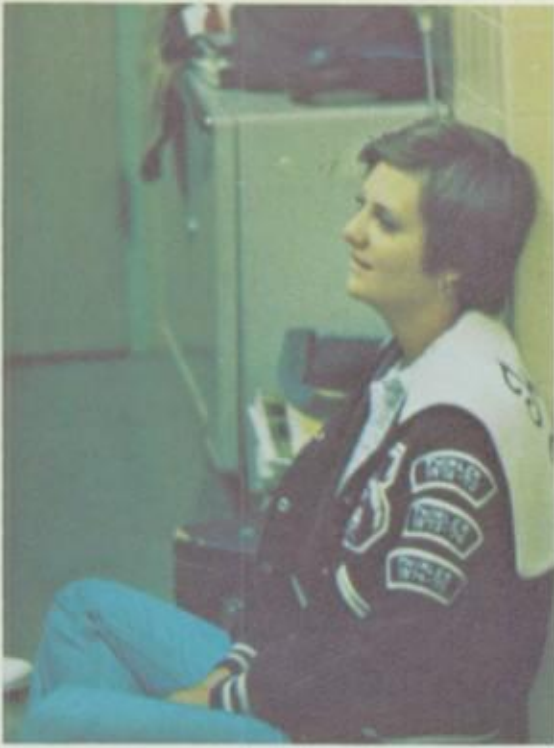

Mrs. Jones' class displays their school spirit as they go to sign the Spirit Poster.

SPIRIT OF 76 . . .

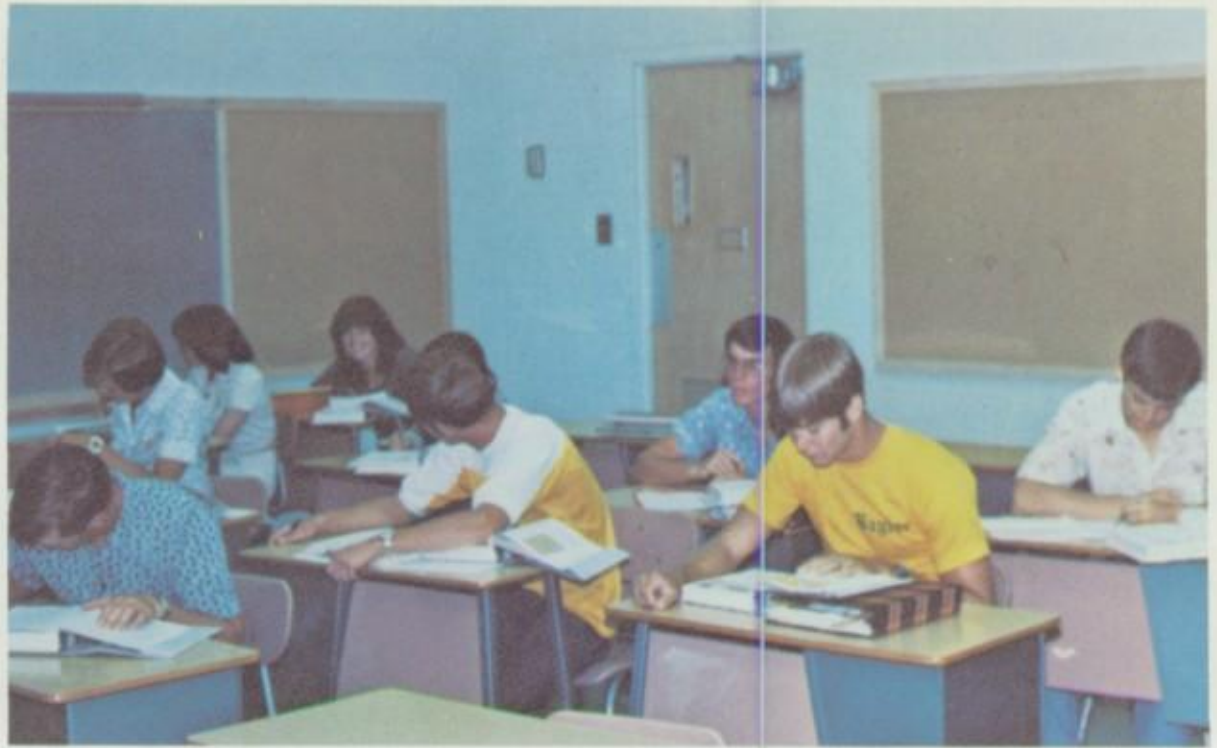

Students of S.H.S. participate in many activities during the year. Included are student government, sports, pep rallies, and parades that are held as part of town and school activities.

S. Ooley, L. Clemmons, and D. Dry contribute to the Celebration Parade.

D. Boatwright is exhausted from twirling in band.

While the rest of the class is absorbed, it looks like D. Desimone and M. Pack have found something more interesting.

All play and no work makes a happier class.

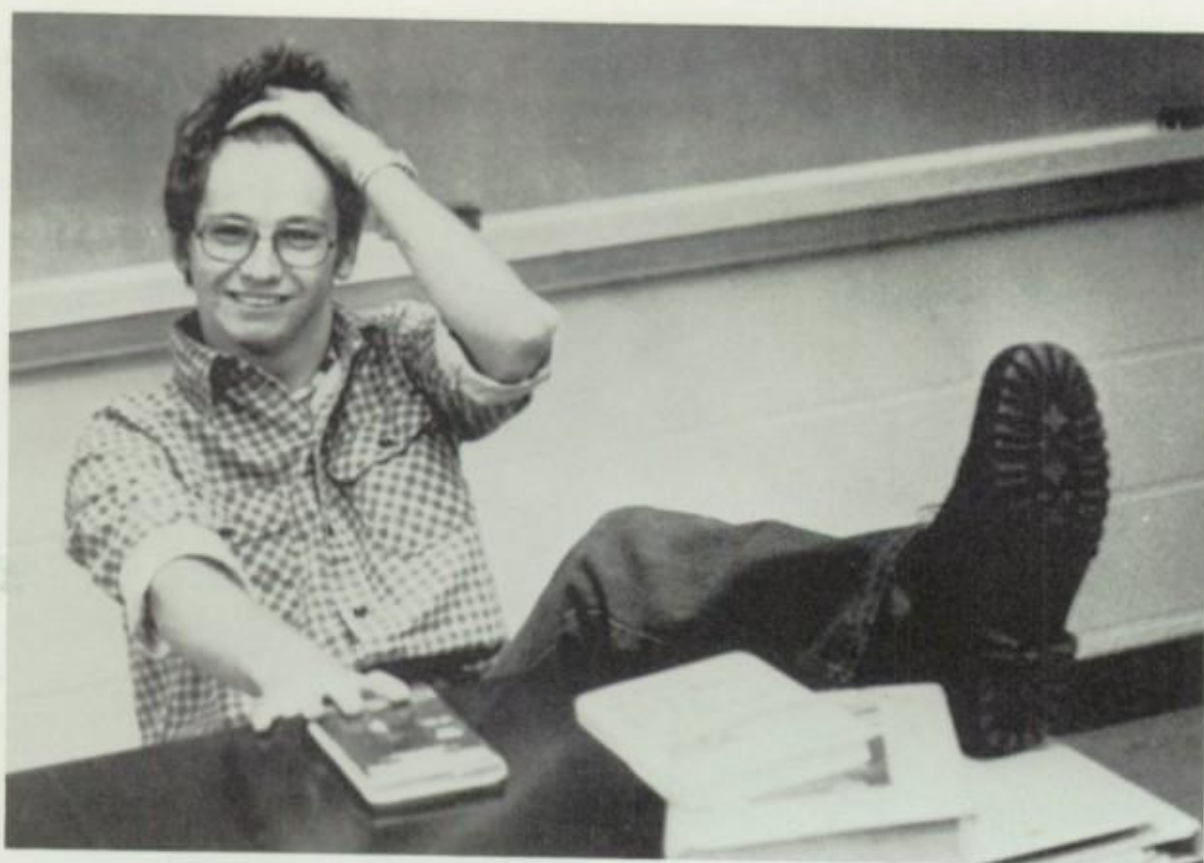

R. Morrison is pretending to have had a busy day.

B. Snider doesn't think it's polite to intrude on the discussion.

J. Fowler takes time out from painting a spirit sign to grimace at the camera.

My gosh! I finally passed a geometry test!

B. Ayres thinks she is being paged.

J. Gatlin doesn't like to have his picture taken.

E. Reimer and C. Clark talk spiritedly while R. Denham, T. Miesner, and K. Gilley have other things on their minds.

Something tells us the class might be displeased with the teacher.

P. T. Cator must not want anyone to know what he is reading.

G. Price is in a strangely happy mood.

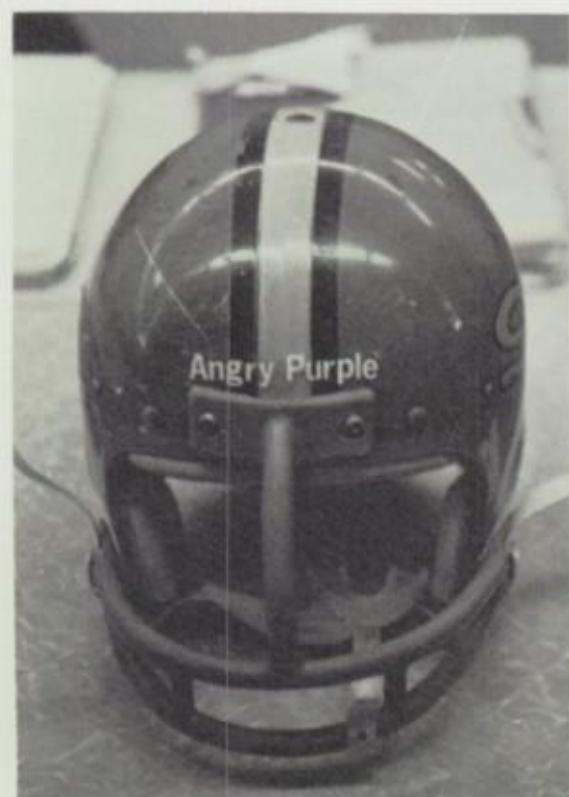

No one seems to know where the football is.

J. Oakes and B. Sheppard get into the spirit of the pep rally by singing the school song.

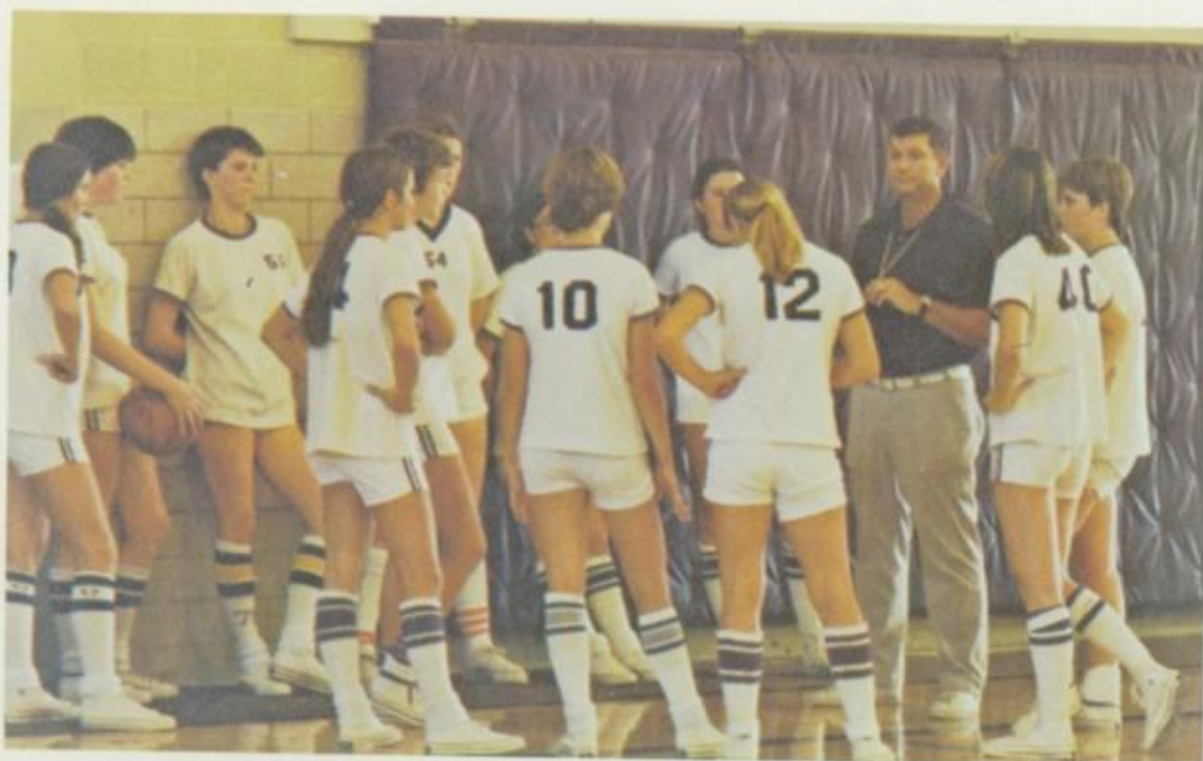

L. Nelson takes a break from her lessons.

"Angry Purple" shows the spirit of the Lynx.

The Flag girls show their spirit at the half time of every football game.

The girls varsity basketball team practices everyday to represent S.H.S. in District 1-AA.

D. Cummings has the audience eating out of his hand.

B. Biles is auditioning for Fonzie's part.

The Lynx spirit is depicted in this sign which tells exactly what the Lynx did to the Stinnett Rattlers.

R. Morris carries the ball against Stratford in the season opener as R. Robertson and M. Fox block.

M. Schumann dreams about a prospective Lynxette game.

G. Hutchison gets after her homework in her free period.

At the moment it looks like this pep rally has more gossiping than cheering going on.

D. Benton, G. Montgomery, R. Martin, and D. Rosser join together after school to demonstrate their spirit.

Several S.H.S. students participate in raising the flag.

D. Benton makes up an English class that includes typing letters.

SPIRIT OF 76 . . .

And so, not only is history one of our subjects, we are the subjects of history. The year of "'76", 1976 that is, is fast becoming history.

PRINCIPAL AND STAFF PROVIDE

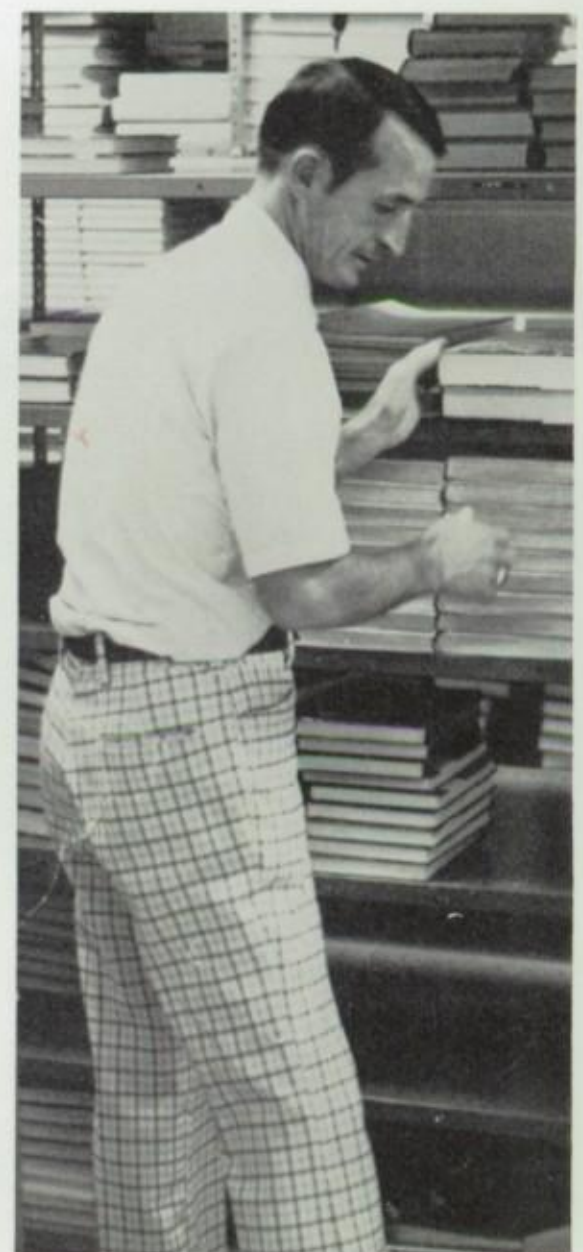

STAFF AND CURRICULUM

EDDY CLEMMONS
H.S. Principal

WANDA ARCHER
Secretary

Mr. Eddy Clemmons is in his first year as principal of Spearman High School. Mr. Clemmons came to Spearman in 1965 as P.E. teacher and assistant coach. In 1970 he assumed duties as Jr. High Principal remaining there until this year.

INFORMATION AND ASSISTANCE

Miss Roden fills out a receipt for S. Gibner.

DOROTHY RODEN
Librarian

An integral part of Spearman High School and an important asset to the curriculum are the library, the counseling service, and the co-curricular activities.

The library, administered by Miss Roden, contains over 10,000 volumes. Also under her supervision are 60 audio-visual machines. She is assisted by Fern

Mr. Newell outlines for P. DeLuna her day's work. She assists Mr. Newell with clerical duties.

Newton. Mr. Newell provides important services in the form of counseling, testing and related areas for the students of S.H.S. Mr. Sherwood is not only athletic director and head football coach, but also activities coordinator.

GREG SHERWOOD
Athletic Director

CLAUDE NEWELL
Counselor

FERN NEWTON
Library Assistant

ENGLISH HAS SOMETHING

DWAYNE MITCHELL
English 4

MARSHALL BENTON
English 3

DONNIE MITCHELL
English 2

Mr. Mitchell leads the class discussion over the book, THE SECRET SHARER.

A. Volden gives a speech in Speech Communications over a subject of interest.

T. Davis prepares to write a title on her finished composition.

TO OFFER EVERYONE

Reading assigned books is a common thing in English 3.

M. Schumann, D. Boatwright, and J. Lackey take notes over THE SECRET SHARER.

I. Vela gives an oral book report.

K. Montgomery, G. McCalmon, and C. Carson can't think of a thing to write.

Every student of SHS is required to have four units of English upon graduation. The English curriculum includes the study of literature and language. Students read many pieces of literature during their four years of high school plus spending considerable time in the study of the structure of our language and in learning to write. It is the aim that students will receive a certain enrichment of their lives for a fuller and happier life by the study of Man and his literature and language.

MATHEMATICS IS A

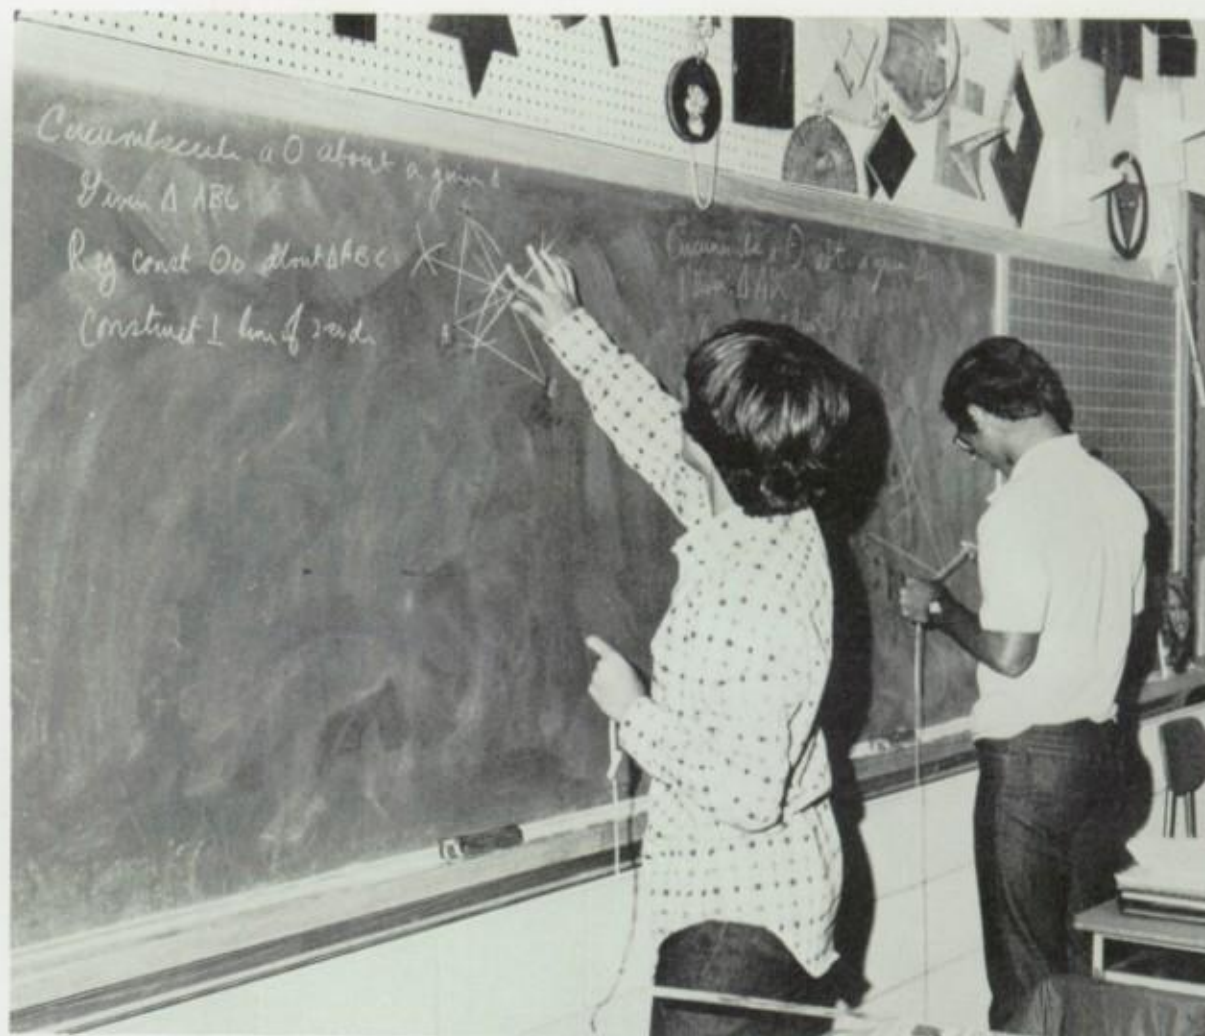

TERRY SCHNEIDER
Related Math 2
Algebra 1

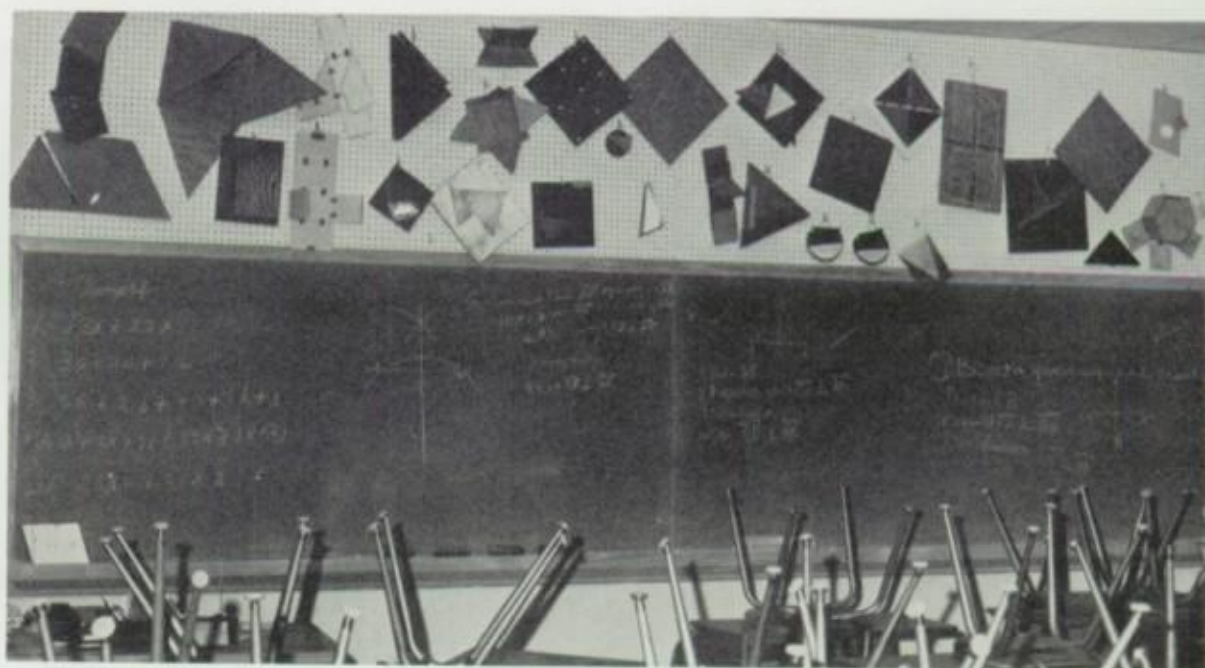

MINNIE WEAVER
Geometry
Trigonometry
Algebra 1 and 2

Mrs. Weaver explains a step in the problem to her class.

C. Harper and G. Price show their skill at bisecting angles on the board in geometry.

Every year geometric projects are done by geometry students and hung on the wall.

COUNTDOWN TO LOGIC

C. Johnson, R. Jones, G. Burke, and B. Jones comprise Mrs. Weaver's trigonometry class.

C. Vernon uses a calculator to multiply and divide large numbers while completing her lesson.

L. Lewis just can't concentrate on her lessons.

Mr. Schneider's class works diligently on its assignments.

The consumer math class looks for food items in the paper to plan their menus.

The mathematics department attempts to achieve a balance between practice and theory so that its students may achieve their maximum potential. The study of the nature of the mathematical system leads to an appreciation of the structure of arithmetic, algebra, geometry, trigonometry and calculus. Students are also prepared for the everyday requirement of life by the use of inductive and deductive reasoning, the need for precise use of language, and the learning of consumer mathematics.

HISTORY STUDIES

Mr. Beasley lectures to his American History class about the causes of the civil war.

CURTIS BEASLEY
Government
American History

DON DRUMMOND
World History

Government students are in various stages of writing an assignment. It appears that the world situation is pleasant or serious, depending on viewpoint.

S. Gatlin locates Indonesia on the map.

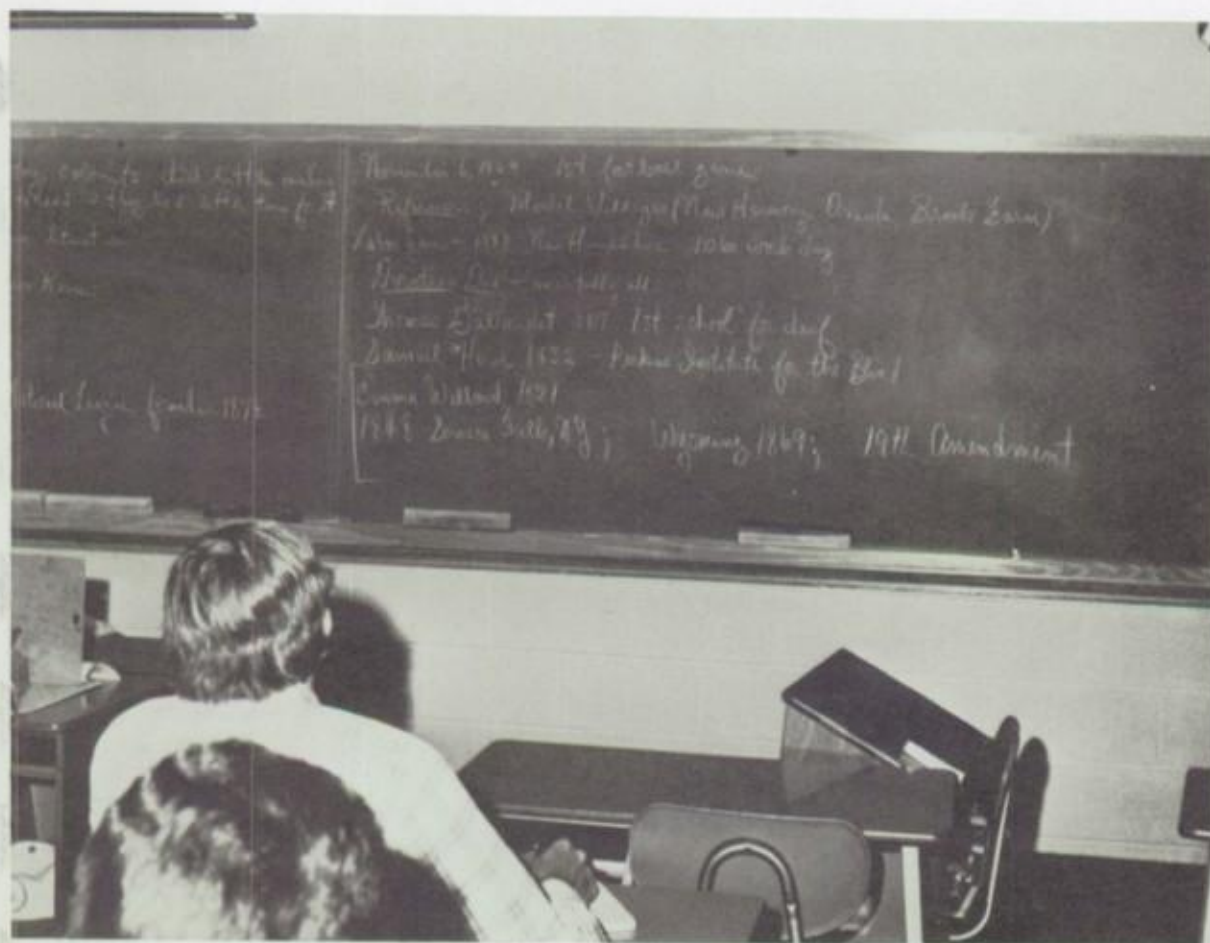

THE WORLD OF MAN

Mr. Drummond proves that the study of the Greeks can be amusing.

Mr. Drummond watches over his class as they take a "blitz" quiz.

A daily part of Mr. Beasley's American History class is taking notes.

The Social Studies department allows the students to investigate the political, economic and social development in American History. Emphasis is given to developing an understanding and appreciation of the American heritage and America's importance as a world political and economic leader.

In World History, students study the foundations of history and the important world developments that affect them as Americans.

SCIENCE TEACHES THE WORLD

STANLEY FRERIKS
Physics
Chemistry

BILL HAMILTON
Biology

K. Harper figures out how to work a microscope in Biology I.

D. Steele and R. Bingham enjoy conducting experiments on cells in Biology II.

P. Archer, K. Hargis, D. Rosser and M. Cunningham are enjoying themselves while dissecting frogs in Biology II.

Science is the study of how the inanimate and the animate relate to each other and to the world we live in. In biology, students learn an understanding of the nature of life. In physics, students learn a better understanding of why things operate as they do. In chemistry, students learn what substances make up the earth and how they interact with each other. All in all, science gives the student a better insight into the world he lives.

STUDENTS LEARN ANOTHER CULTURE

GLENNA MCMULLAN
Spanish
English

C. Moore frowns over a conjugation as she studies her Spanish.

R. Keetch concentrates on finishing his Spanish assignment.

E. Allen listens to a tape on one of the recorders in the Spanish language lab.

Spanish gives an international flavor to the curriculum. Students not only learn a basic understanding of the Spanish language but also they learn about the Spanish people and their culture. Students are encouraged not only to understand spoken Spanish but also to learn a useful vocabulary and develop a good accent. Spanish is an important part of Texas culture and is an important aspect of our history.

KEN FRIEMEL
Physical Education
Health

J. Gatlin and J. Oltman run in place to keep their muscles in shape for Boys' P.E.

M. Mills, R. Lesley, and M. McCammond look on as their team scores a point while playing scoop ball in Boys' P.E.

The race is on, as everyone races for the balls in another game of war ball in Boys' P.E. class.

Mr. Friemel also teaches Health. Two quarters are required and the course is designed to help the student better understand his own body.

HEALTHY BODIES

A. Gould does a hamstring stretch as a part of P.E. exercises.

The girls all race for the balls as they prepare for an exciting game.

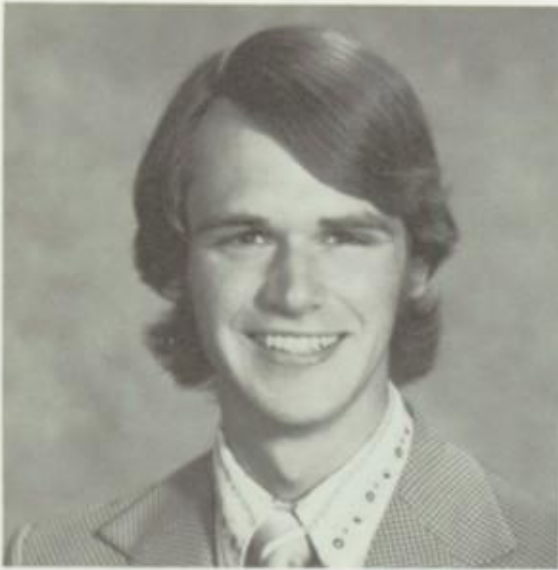

C. Smith and L. Kunselman enjoy a game of paddle ball.

L. Vaughn poses as paddle-ball champ.

Physical education for students is based on the idea that a student must not only be sound of mind, but also sound of body. Students play a variety of games, paddleball, war war ball, scoop ball, soccer and do calisthenics to develop their physical abilities. Also available is a trampoline for them to use.

CHOIR HARMONIZES WITH THE TIMES

RICK MYLER
Vocal Music

The girls' choir under Mr. Myler's direction learn many new songs.

Mr. Myler directs his outstanding girls' choir.

The boys' choir really seems to enjoy their daily rehearsal under Mr. Myler's direction.

Vocal music students at S.H.S. appear in public for many events such as Veteran's Day program, assemblies, and concerts. And they also represent the school in solo and ensemble contests and at All-Region choir auditions.

BAND HOLDS THE MAGIC OF MUSIC

Mr. Kyler and Mr. Reynard unfurl the banner as the band prepares to cheer the Lynx on to victory.

VIC KYLER
Band

P. Largent, T. Keetch, and T. Cochran make beautiful music on their clarinets.

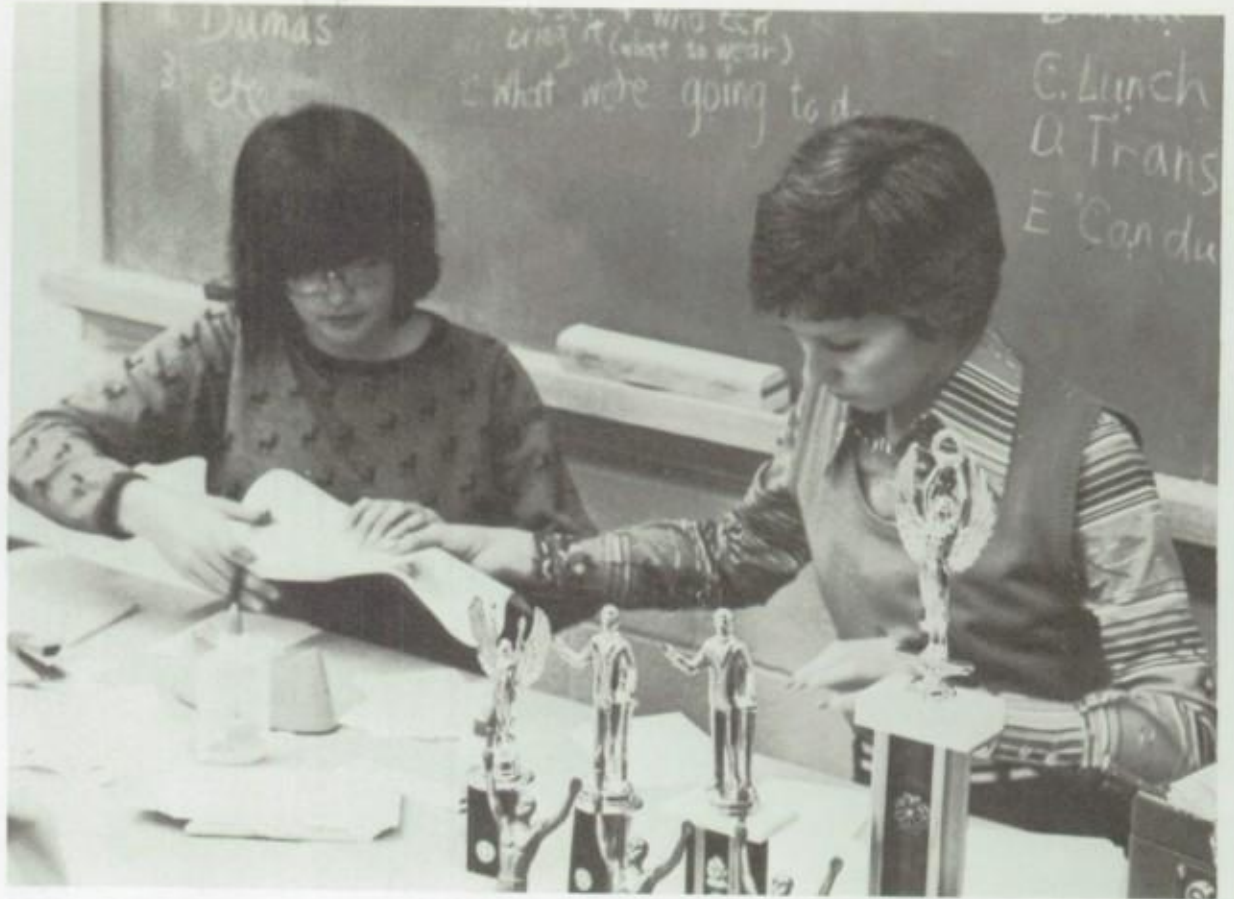

The percussion section of the Spearman High School Band keeps the beat with the rest of the band members.

The Spearman High School Band is on the field! Those words introduce the band as it performs its weekly halftime show at the football games. The band students also participate in several musical events besides the halftime shows. These events include UIL Marching, sightreading and concert events, all region and all state solos and ensembles.

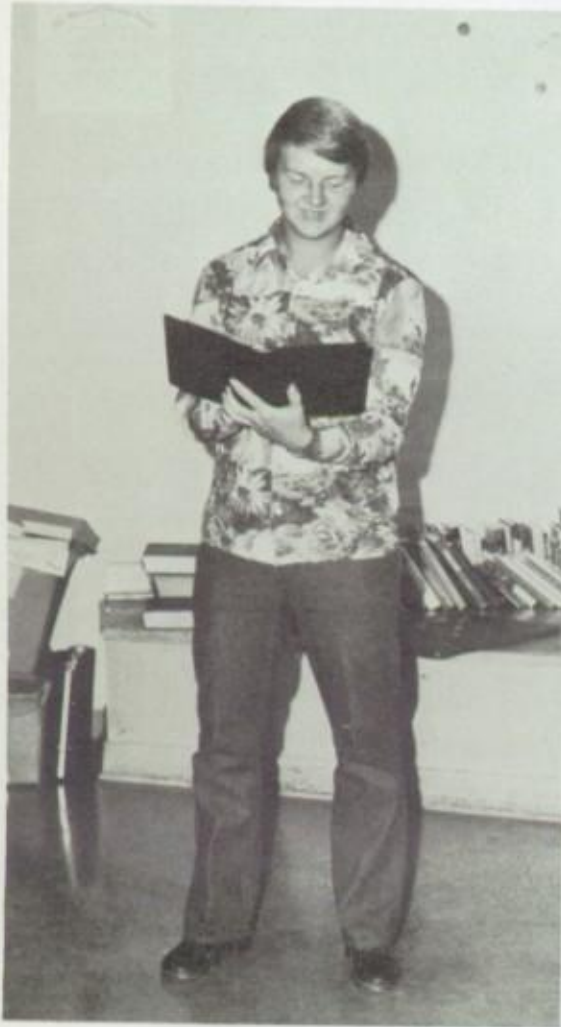

SPEECH DEVELOPS CONFIDENCE

REBECCA STOCKDALE
Speech

D. Nelson and Miss Stockdale work on some research for speech class.

O. Jenkins really gets involved as he reads his poetry for the speech class.

M. McCammond tapes his lines together for a play the Drama class put on for the high school English classes.

The Speech and Drama department seeks to develop expression, creativity and originality in its students. Students are also given opportunity to perform on a number of different levels. The department also participates in debate, extemp, prose, poetry and drama.

BUSINESS TEACHES JOB SKILLS

The Typing I class warms up for another day's work.

WANDA JONES
Business

J. Lackey is apparently writing a very funny joke, in shorthand.

J. Reed, S. Gatlin, G. Montgomery, B. Ayers, work on Project #1 in bookkeeping.

Shorthand students read over a letter before dictation over it.

Typing, Shorthand and Bookkeeping have practical application quickly for students as they apply those skills readily in personal use and in jobs. Typing and Shorthand are used by students to aid them in other classes in preparation of papers and taking notes. Bookkeeping introduces the students to basic record keeping and prepares them to enter the business world.

HOME MAKING DELVES

FRANCES HUDSON
Home Economics

JAN TURNBOUGH
Home Economics

R. Morrison, D. Ochoa, C. Vernon, and S. Cook look on as K. Harper demonstrates how to feed a baby.

D. Benton runs the projector as Home Ec. II watches a film strip on House Styles.

D. Jones puts the finishing touches on her houseplan.

K. Hargis, C. Harper, and G. Cook put their dish into the oven.

INTO DOMESTIC ARTS

K. Harper sews shirt seams in Home Ec I.

Mrs. Hudson's Home and Family Living class is really one big family.

Miss Turnbough shows C. Collier, D. Jones, C. Vernon, and K. Harper how to sew darts.

Home and Family Living courses deal with the many areas that a student will face in the future as a homemaker, as a parent and as a consumer. As a homemaker, the courses teach food, nutrition, clothing, budgeting, and sewing. Some of the consumer fields also lap over into homemaking - such as housing, home furnishing, and appliances. As a future parent, students study child development, and other important human relationships.

VARIETY OF USEFUL SKILLS

J. Vardell, K. Nollner, J. Villalobos, R. Reed, watch as J. Schaffer saws a block of wood to the proper length.

BURT WILLIAMS
Vocational Agriculture

Vo-Ag I students examine the power hack saw.

J. Whitaker, R. Hagerman, J. Kenney, R. Riggins, and J. Gatlin take notes in Vo-Ag I.

Mr. Boone prepares to show a film to his Vo-Ag class.

Industrial Cooperative Training and Distributive Education provides students with training in subjects designed to provide the knowledge and skill needed by the high school student for entry into the world of retailing, wholesaling and service occupations. Many S.H.S. students work at jobs in Spearman each day to develop their skills in addition to their classroom work.

PICTURES AT RIGHT, Mr. Cates' D.E. class work on individual assignments. The class teaches the theory aspects of the job that the student is actually employed at.

Top are L. Harmond, T. Reid, C. Byers, and K. McBroom. Bottom, K. McBroom, D. Jenkins, J. Godfrey and L. Alexander.

PREPARE FOR THE WORLD OF WORK

The Vocational Adjustment class is a new offering at Spearman High School. It provides for the student with special abilities to pursue an alternative program toward a diploma. The program also offers to the student opportunity for employment while completing his high school education.

Mr. Smith's P.E.L. students write job interview questions.

ACTIVITIES

FHA

SHS has many activities in different areas in which students can take part. This section, while representative of the many activities done outside the classroom, does not include all of them. A majority of activities, however, are included in these pages.

Paige Mitchell is baking a surprise for her secret grandmother.

Shari Fox runs down to blow up a bag after eating a cracker.

Home Ec. II class gives Diane VanZandt a going away party.

FHA seeks to make every member a better person and homemaker. FHA is involved in many activities, such as Secret Grandmothers. Each girl picks an elderly woman to be her secret grandmother. She sends her cards, cakes, and just lets her know that she is not alone. Also, every spring FHA has a formal Sweetheart Banquet.

Mothers of some FHA girls attend the Mother-Daughter supper.

FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES

Terrell Evans, Jayne Godfrey, and Donna Boatwright represent FCA as they run the basketball scoreboard.

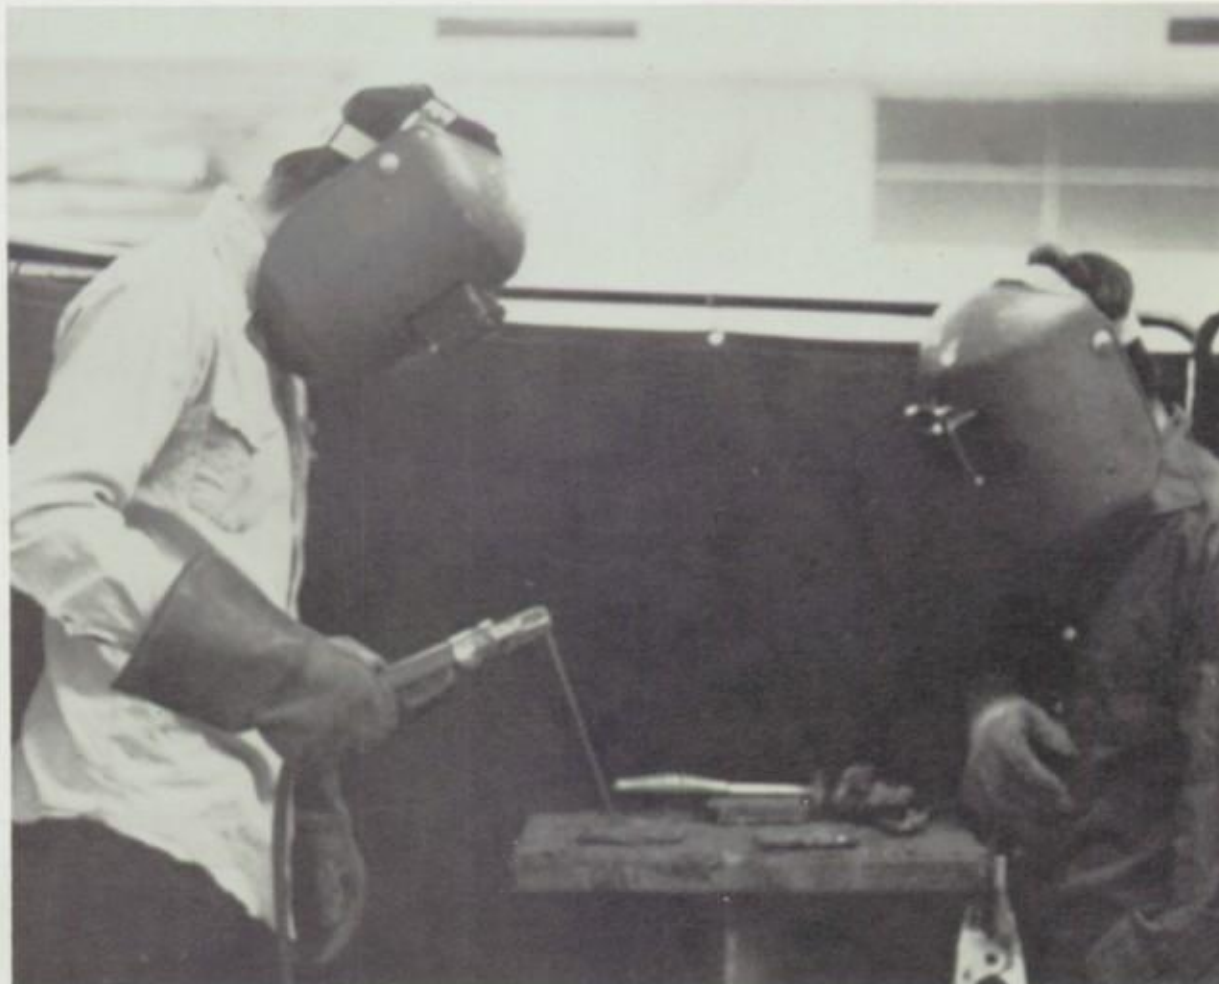

Kent Hargis and Johnny Kenny work in the concession stand.

FCA is an organization made up of students, mostly athletes, which strives to give athletes a Christian outlook on sports. Members may attend summer camp at Estes Park or the mini-conference at Guymon.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

James Whitaker and . . .

John Schaffer and David Ochoa prepare to weld a metal plate.

. . . Kyle Nollner pick up FFA fruit to sell.

FFA sells fruit to finance their many projects such as the Parent, Member, and Guest Banquet. Members raise pigs, calves, and lambs to exhibit at the County Livestock Show and other shows. These shows give members experience and the opportunity to sell their animals.

RODEO CLUB

The Rodeo Club of SHS consists of boys and girls who compete in rodeos in the Tri-State area. Their goal is to earn enough points during the rodeo season to be eligible to compete in the TSHSRA finals on June 10, 11, and 12.

Cindy Patterson guides her horse around a pole in the Pole-Bending race.

Roy Harbour tries to ride his bull to the time limit. Roy is currently first in the bull-riding standings.

Ricky Vardell tries to make an eight-second ride . . .

. . . but loses his grip.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society initiates light candles that symbolize knowledge.

Janyth Lackey recites the speech of character at the installation.

NHS is an organization which consists of students with grade averages of 90 or above. It has an initiation for new members every fall. NHS sells programs at football games and is responsible for the coke machine.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders chant a yell at the Homecoming basketball game.

The gym for the Homecoming dance was decorated by the cheerleaders.

Cheerleaders encourage spirit for SHS. They sell spirit ribbons for every football and basketball game, and frequently stay after school to paint spirit signs.

FOOTBALL HOMECOMING 1975

RAJAN MARTIN CROWNED QUEEN!

Rajan Martin was chosen by the Lynx football squad as Homecoming Queen for 1975-76.

King Bobby Snider bestows the traditional kiss upon Queen Rajan Martin while escort Mark Fox stands by.

Janyth Lackey was elected Senior attendant. She was escorted by Roger Jones and Cary Collier.

Homecoming '75 was a warm one, for many reasons. The weather was exceptionally nice. The freshmen and juniors stacked up a larger bonfire than the sophomores and seniors. And, the Lynx stomped the Stinnett Rattlers 28-6.

The Queen and attendants dress up for 50's Day.

Pam Rylant was chosen to be the Junior attendant. Her escorts were Jimmy Jackson and Terrell Evans.

Elaine Reimer was elected Sophomore attendant. Her escorts were David Steele and Leon Hagerman.

Mr. Clemmons is silhouetted against the bonfire.

Rajan prepares to be driven around the field.

Christy Collier was chosen to be the Freshman attendant. Her escorts were Regie Robertson and Jeff Beedy.

BASKETBALL HOMECOMING

Queen Rajan Martin prepares to crown King David Steele.

The Boys and Girls Varsity Basketball teams await the start of the pep rally.

The Basketball Band plays a tune during halftime.

Carla Harper was escorted by Mike Bodey.

The '76 Basketball Homecoming was a "winner" since both the girls and boys defeated Panhandle teams. The girls won 54-35, and the boys won 75-61. Rajan Martin was crowned Queen and David Steele was crowned King. Senior attendants were Michelle Schumann, Jan-yth Lackey, Milana Papay, and Johnette Lee.

Connie Vernon, Christy Collier, and Kelly Harper join in the Homecoming festivities.

GIRL'S TRACK

Connie Kizziar, Stephanie Reed, and Brenda Cook practice throwing the shot.

Robin Denham and Alicia Mahanay race each other in a sprint.

Donna Brogdon and Gail Montgomery reach the end of their 6th lap.

The track girls run buildups and then do warm-up exercises.

Girl's Track was initiated this year. Approximately 40 girls are competing. During the spring boys and girls are also competing in track, tennis, and golf.

LYNX WIN DISTRICT;

The arms tell it all. Kent Hargis scores TD against Stinnett to put the Lynx ahead to stay. 51 is Terrell Evans and 81 is Jeff Beedy.

Ricky Morris sweeps end as a Sanford-Fritch tackler comes up to make the stop. Lynx went on to win 21-13 to run record to 4-1.

ATHLETICS

The Spearman Lynx for the third consecutive year are District Champions of Class 1-AA. In 1973, the Lynx tied for the Championship but have won the last two titles outright.

In 1975, the Lynx won 9 and lost 2. They opened the season with a loss to Stratford, then won nine straight before losing their final game, in bi-district play 29-0 to Childress.

Coach Greg Sherwood is well on his way to establishing a tradition of strong district teams as the Lynx have yet to lose a district game under his direction. They have been tied once. His record at Spearman since coming here in 1973 is 28-7-1.

This possibly was to have been a rebuilding year as only two offensive starters returned, but the rebuilding was essentially accomplished in the non-district schedule in which the Lynx lost one and then defeated Canadian, Sun-

Zane Newton on a fake punt goes 55 yards to the Phillips 3-yard line. Zane averaged 6.1 yards per carry during the season. The Phillips game was an important one for the Lynx as Phillips was undefeated entering the game. Leading the blocking are Fox, 22, and Friemel, 52.

Mark Fox barely lunges across the goal line as he caps a nine-yard run with the Lynx second TD against Stinnett.

WIN NINE, LOSE TWO!

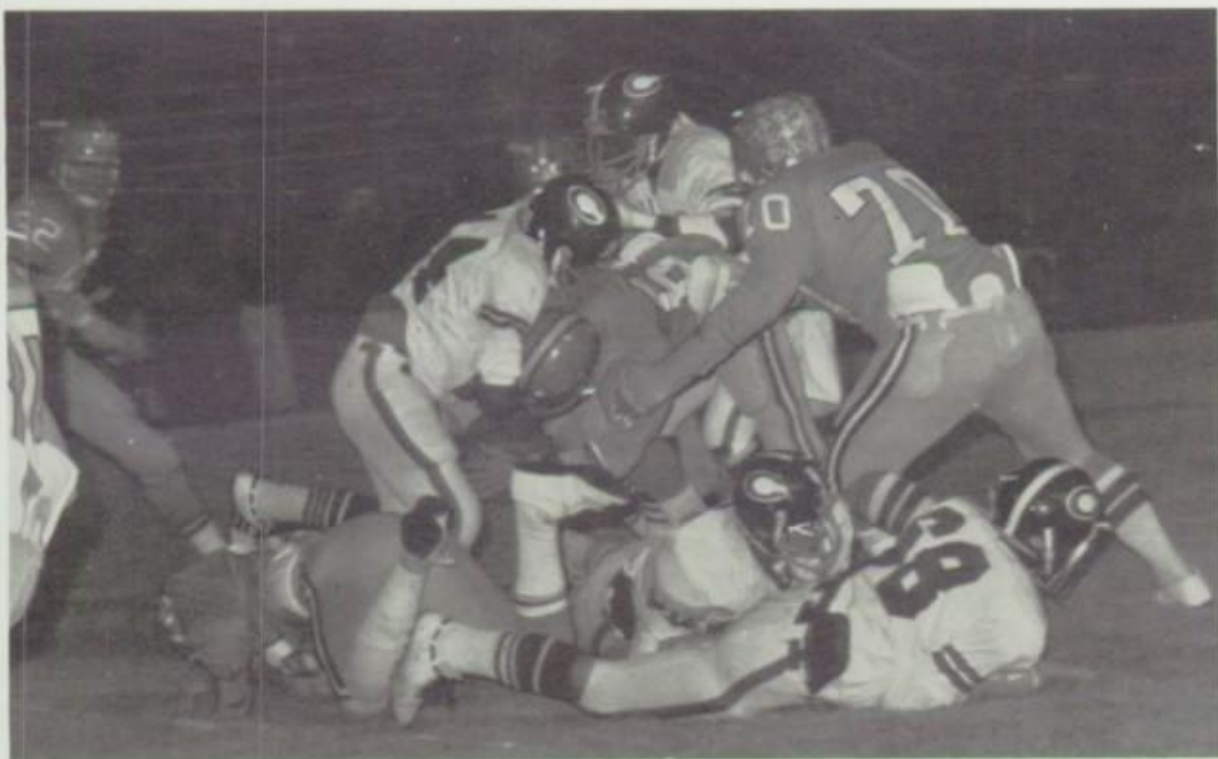

ray, Stinnett and Sanford-Fritch.

The offense was led by seniors Mark Fox and David Steele with freshman Zane Newton and junior Rick Morris adding considerable punch. Newton averaged 6.1 yards per carry and handled the punting chores for the Lynx.

The defense was led by three-time all district linebacker Roger Jones. Roger also was all-state in 1974 and at the time of this writing is considered a good bet to repeat that distinction. He has also captained the Lynx all three years that he has played.

All in all, it was a great year for the Lynx as they combined an offense that gained 306 yards a game and a defense that only allowed 179 yards with superior attitude and dedication to ring up their fourth consecutive winning season.

The junior varsity also enjoyed a successful season, winning eight games and tying one!

The Lynx defense led by Bo DeArmond stops Childress running back Jody Hernandez in the bi-district game won by Childress. The Lynx defense allowed opponents only 179 yards total offense per game.

The Lynx offense, under the direction of senior quarterback David Steele, sets as the Lynx open season play with Stratford. The game was the first one played in the new stadium.

"We'll run it once more fellas!" Coach Don Drummond directs the Lynx as they warm up for the opener against Stratford. The new stadium was dedicated before the game.

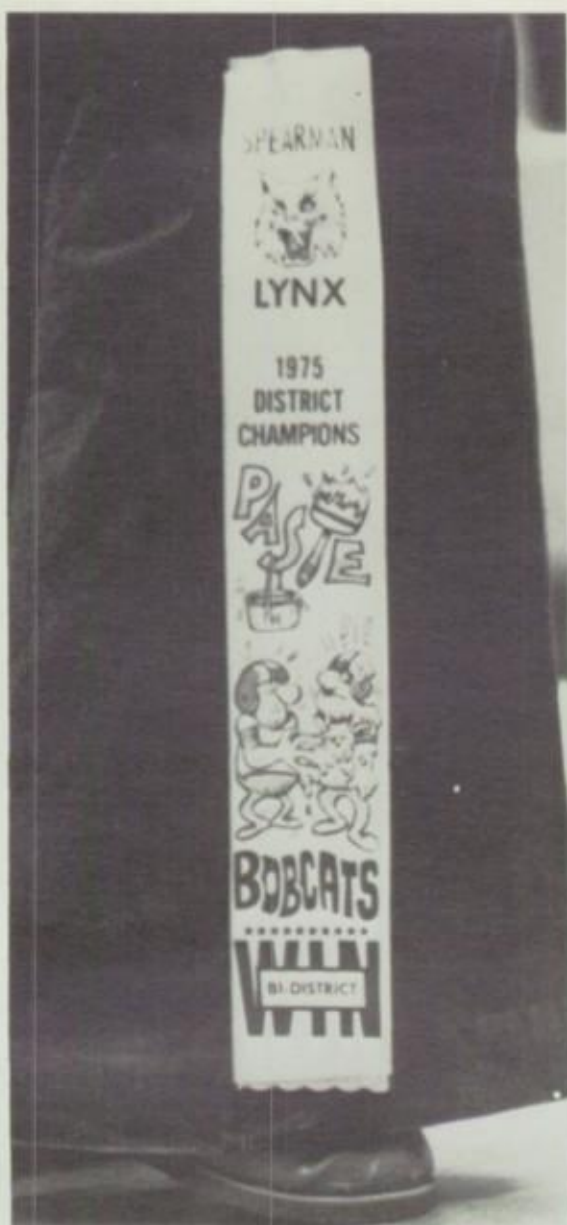

Roger Jones, 40, is the center of the Lynx defense as it stops a Childress runner in the bi-district game.

Zane Newton prepares to put the toe into the ball against Boys Ranch. Protecting are Phil Archer and Mark Cunningham. The Lynx had to win the game to insure outright possession of the District Championship. They did, convincingly, 48-0. The win completed the regular season with a record of 8 wins and 1 loss for the Lynx. They entered bi-district play the next week against Childress.

Senior Quarterback David Steele sets up to throw against the Phillips Blackhawks. Providing pass protection are T. Latham (65) and C. Bodey. The Lynx clipped the Blackhawks 41-21 in what Coach Sherwood termed as the best overall game of the season for the Lynx. The Blackhawks were undefeated coming into the game.

School Spirit ran high the week of the bi-district game with spirit ribbons part of standard dress.

No, it isn't Valley Forge. It's the playoffs at Borger with Childress. Yes, those spots are snowflakes. The first half was played in snow and the entire game in very cold conditions. Childress chilled the Lynx 29-0. Rick Morris is being brought down after a short gain.

It was a solemn group of Lynx that listened as the school song was played after losing to Childress. But the Lynx had much to smile about during the season, winning nine, losing two and winning their third consecutive district title.

ALL-STATERS

Senior end Jeff Beedy hauls in a pass from Steele as the Lynx pick up 43 yards on the play against the Blackhawks. Although this play did not go for a touchdown, Jeff caught 4 TD passes during the season. He had a total of 11 receptions for the season.

LYNX REPEAT AS DISTRICT CHAMPIONS!

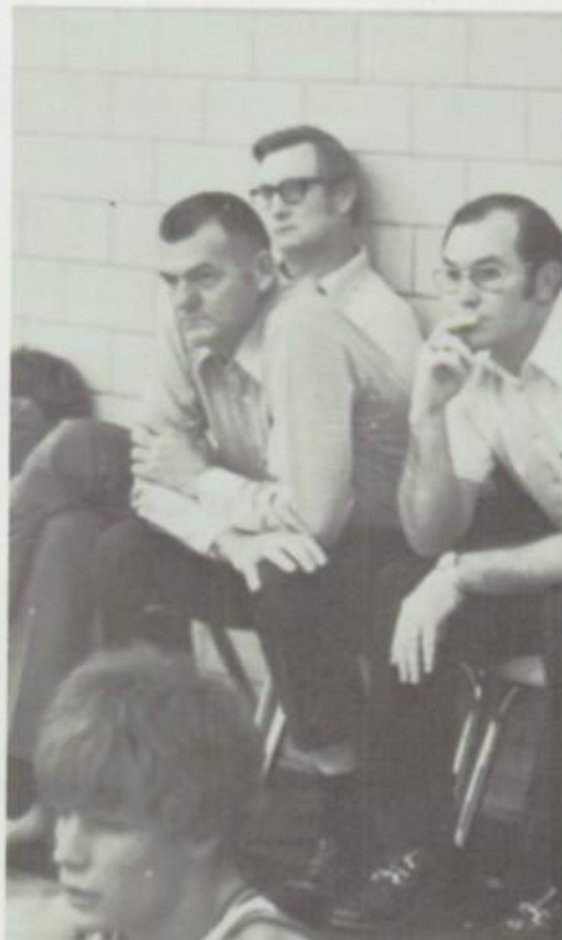

The Spearman Lynx under the direction of Ed Moore, Wendy Williams, and Don Drummond tied for the first half district crown with Panhandle, but then won the second half to repeat as district champions and advance to the bi-district playoffs where they lost to Childress 64-66.

The Lynx had a rocky outset as they got a late start because of football playoffs, and also because of adjusting to a new style of play, but they got it all together, to win not only the district crown, but also to finish with a winning record.

Led by star post man Roger Jones who averaged 28 points a game, the Lynx were an exciting, crowd-pleasing ball club as they scored over 100 points in one game and hustled and shot their way to the title. The fast break was spearheaded by freshman guard Zane Newton and sophomore Randy Reid. The backline of the Lynx was built around Jones, but brother Jim, newcomer David Steele, Jeff Beedy, Leon Hagerman, Mark Cunningham, and Raymie Porter contributed key efforts in the Lynx drive for the district crown.

Roger Jones shoots a jumpshot over the outstretched arms of a Dalhart player.

Ed Moore, the head coach of the Lynx, is assisted by coaches Drummond and Williams.

Jeff Beedy shoots a jumper over Darrell Doshier of Stratford.

All-District basketball and football teams and basketball scoreboards are on page 220.

LYNXETTES DISTRICT RUNNER-UP

The Lynxettes and Blackhawkettes take a time out with four seconds left. The Lynxettes have the ball.

Tish Piatt guards Phillip's star forward Jill Rankin.

In one of the top efforts ever given by a Lynxette team in recent years at Varsity gym, the Lynxettes lost to Phillips 38-37 and dropped out of contention for the district title. The Lynxettes trailed the taller Phillips girls by as much as 7 points late in the game but gamely rallied only to have a last second shot miss. Phillips had defeated the Lynxettes at Phillips and needed the win to clinch the title. Even though they did not win the district the Lynxettes had an impressive season; winning 15, losing 11, and winning 1st at the Beaver Tournament, 2nd at Shamrock, and 3rd at Duncanville. The Lynxettes are under the direction of Coach Ralph Newton.

LYNX WHIP ERICK AT SHAMROCK

The Spearman Lynx rebounded from an opening round loss to Wheeler as they easily defeated Erick, Oklahoma Bearcats by the score of 83-69. This win puts the Lynx in the Consolation finals against the host team, the Shamrock Irish.

The Lynx started the game as if they were going to blow Erick out of the gym as they quickly had 8-10 point leads in the first quarter. Led by Roger Jones with 6 points and Zane Newton with 4 points, the Lynx led at the end of the first quarter, 21-9.

shots. With the Bearcats still finding the range, the Lynx found themselves in a tight ball game. Led by Artie Water's 9 points in the second quarter and Mike Smith's 5 points and Mickey Raney with 4 points, all of them coming on free throws, the Bearcats fought back within 4 points of the Lynx. The Lynx were led by Roger Jones with 8 points and Randy Reid and Jim Jones each with 4 points in the second quarter. The third quarter ended with the Lynx still holding on to a slim 4 point lead 54-50.

AFTERWORD

There is a television commercial that says that the spirit of America is displayed in its achievements. Likewise we feel that the spirit of Spearman High School is displayed in the achievements of its students.

It is easy to look at the records of our athletic teams, our achievements in speech, FFA, DECA, FHA, UIL literary and science events and all the other interscholastic activities that we engage in and know that we have achieved because of the spirit displayed in these activities . . . but it is harder to see those achievements of our mind and heart.

Some eighty of our students this spring will attain the highest achievement of this high school - a diploma and the accompanying designation - high school graduate. Some of those who began with the class of '76 back through the years failed to have the spirit to achieve but those who graduate will have shown the spirit - the spirit of '76, spirit that we feel is uniquely American.

Underclassmen have also achieved. They will have advanced one step up the ladder toward the goal of graduation. Tests have been taken, papers written, lectures listened to. Their achievements also are accomplished in the spirit of '76.

So it is easy to see that our high school is full of achievement. Each student has achieved in his own way. Our trophy cases are filled with symbols of our achievement but we need not these visual reminders for we carry in our minds and our hearts the knowledge that we have achieved - and that our spirit is reflected in those achievements.

In this bicentennial year, we cannot close our chronicle of the year without reflecting once again our love of our country, our town, and our school. We know that we are reaping the benefits of our forefather's achievements and spirit. May our country long endure! If we always have the spirit of '76, it will.

Lynx Annual Staff

Mike Bodey seems to be in the swing of the times as he models his Spirit of '76 T-shirt.

Phil Archer seems to be having trouble with his butane formula.

Johnette Lee laughs as Donna Boatwright opens her Christmas presents.

It couldn't be that Mr. Hamilton is giving Carla Harper a headache, could it?

Darrie Howard seems astonished by something.

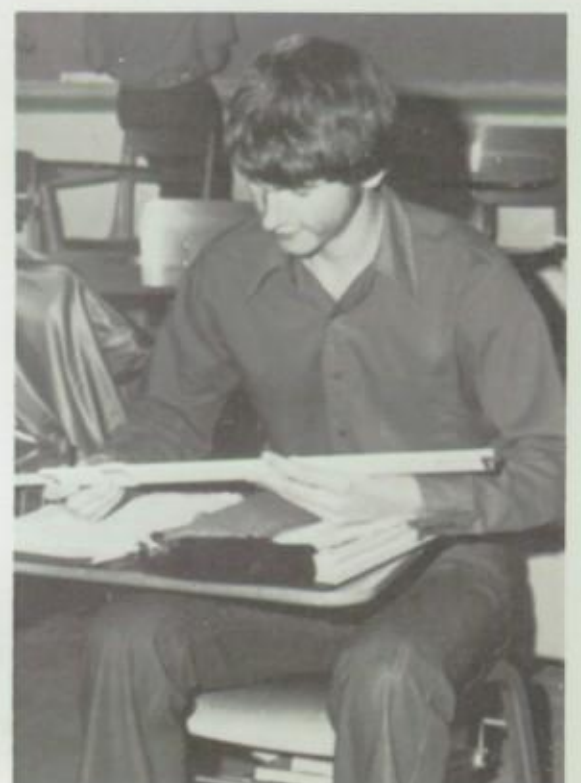

Lori McAdams thinks pencils make good snacks.

Mark Cunningham flashes one of his famous "I am cool" smiles.

Jan Oakes and Beth Sheppard wait in the parking lot, hoping someone will give them a ride to basketball practice.

Raymie Porter prepares to use his slide rule.

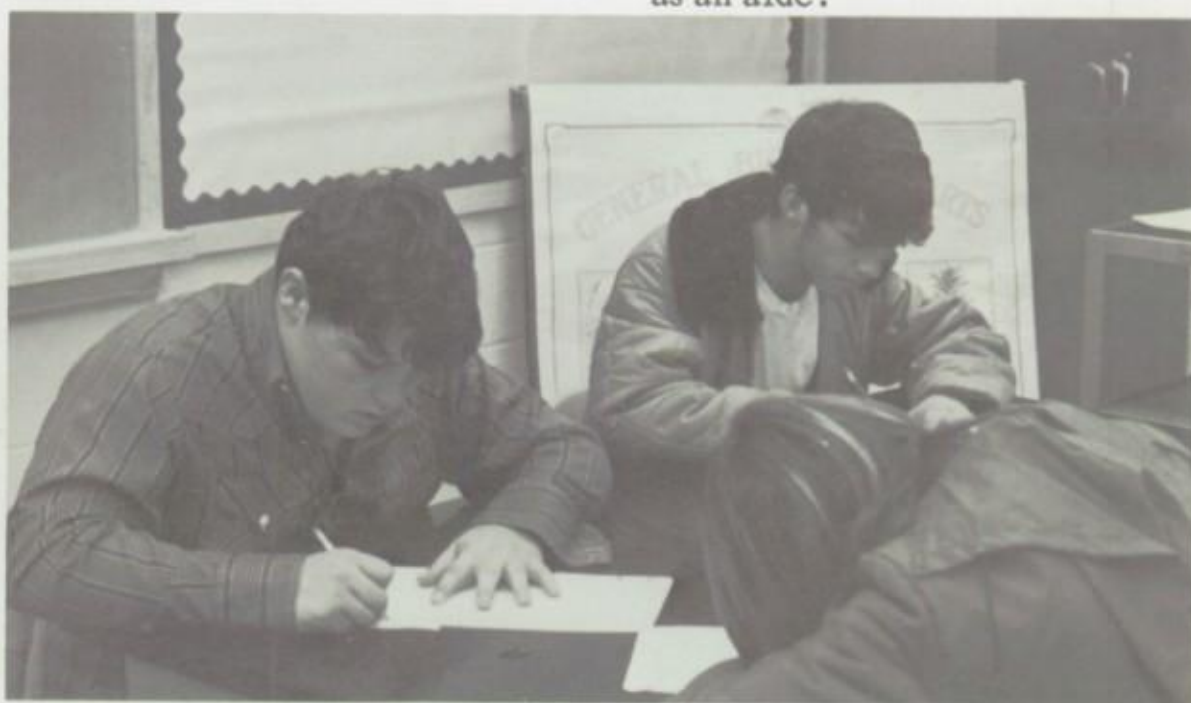

Many students support the Lynx and Lynxettes by going to the basketball games.

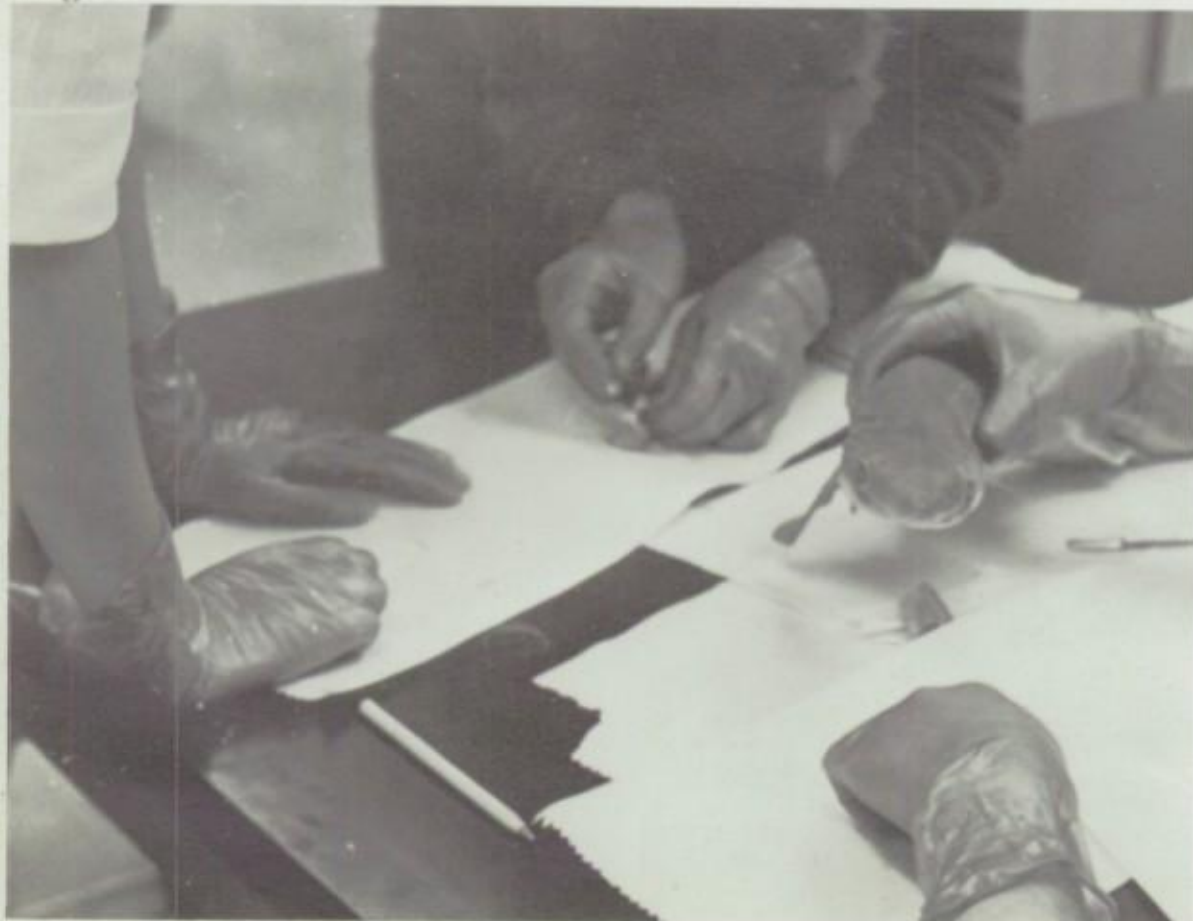

Denise Benton works in the office as an aide.

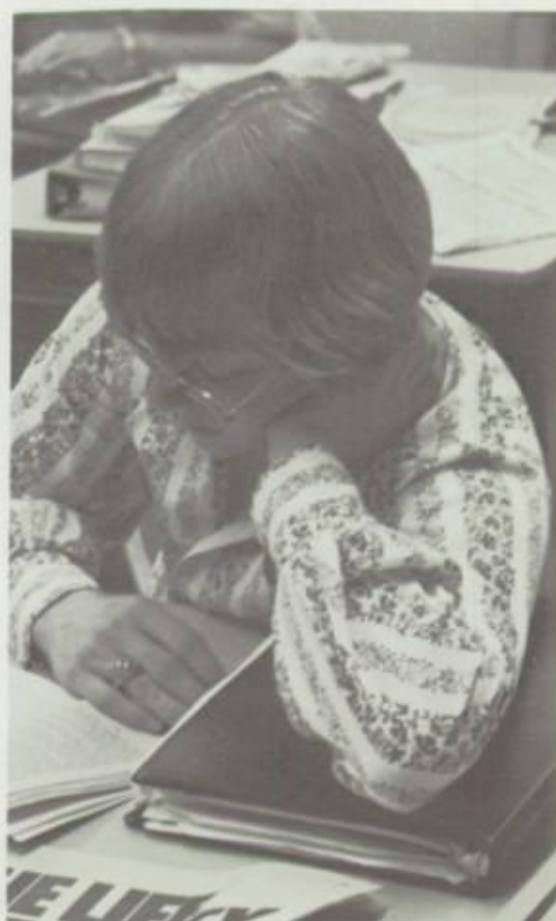

Ramon Cantu enjoys reading magazines.

Jed Miesner and David Stafford take tests in Biology.

One of the three dissecters holds the shark up so it can smile for the camera.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We close this edition of the Lynx knowing full well that without the cooperation of many individuals, it would never have come to pass.

To Mr. Clemmons, our principal, who graciously aided us with many picture scheduling problems, we say "thank you." To our teachers and our fellow students we also say "thank you" for the many ways that you have helped.

This yearbook is published by Taylor Publishing Co., Dallas, represented by Mr. Floyd Hobson, who displayed admirable patience and understanding as we struggled toward publication.

We are aware that because of our March 1 deadline that we leave a portion of the school year out of the yearbook. We will try to make amends by once more publishing a supplement that will arrive as school starts next fall.

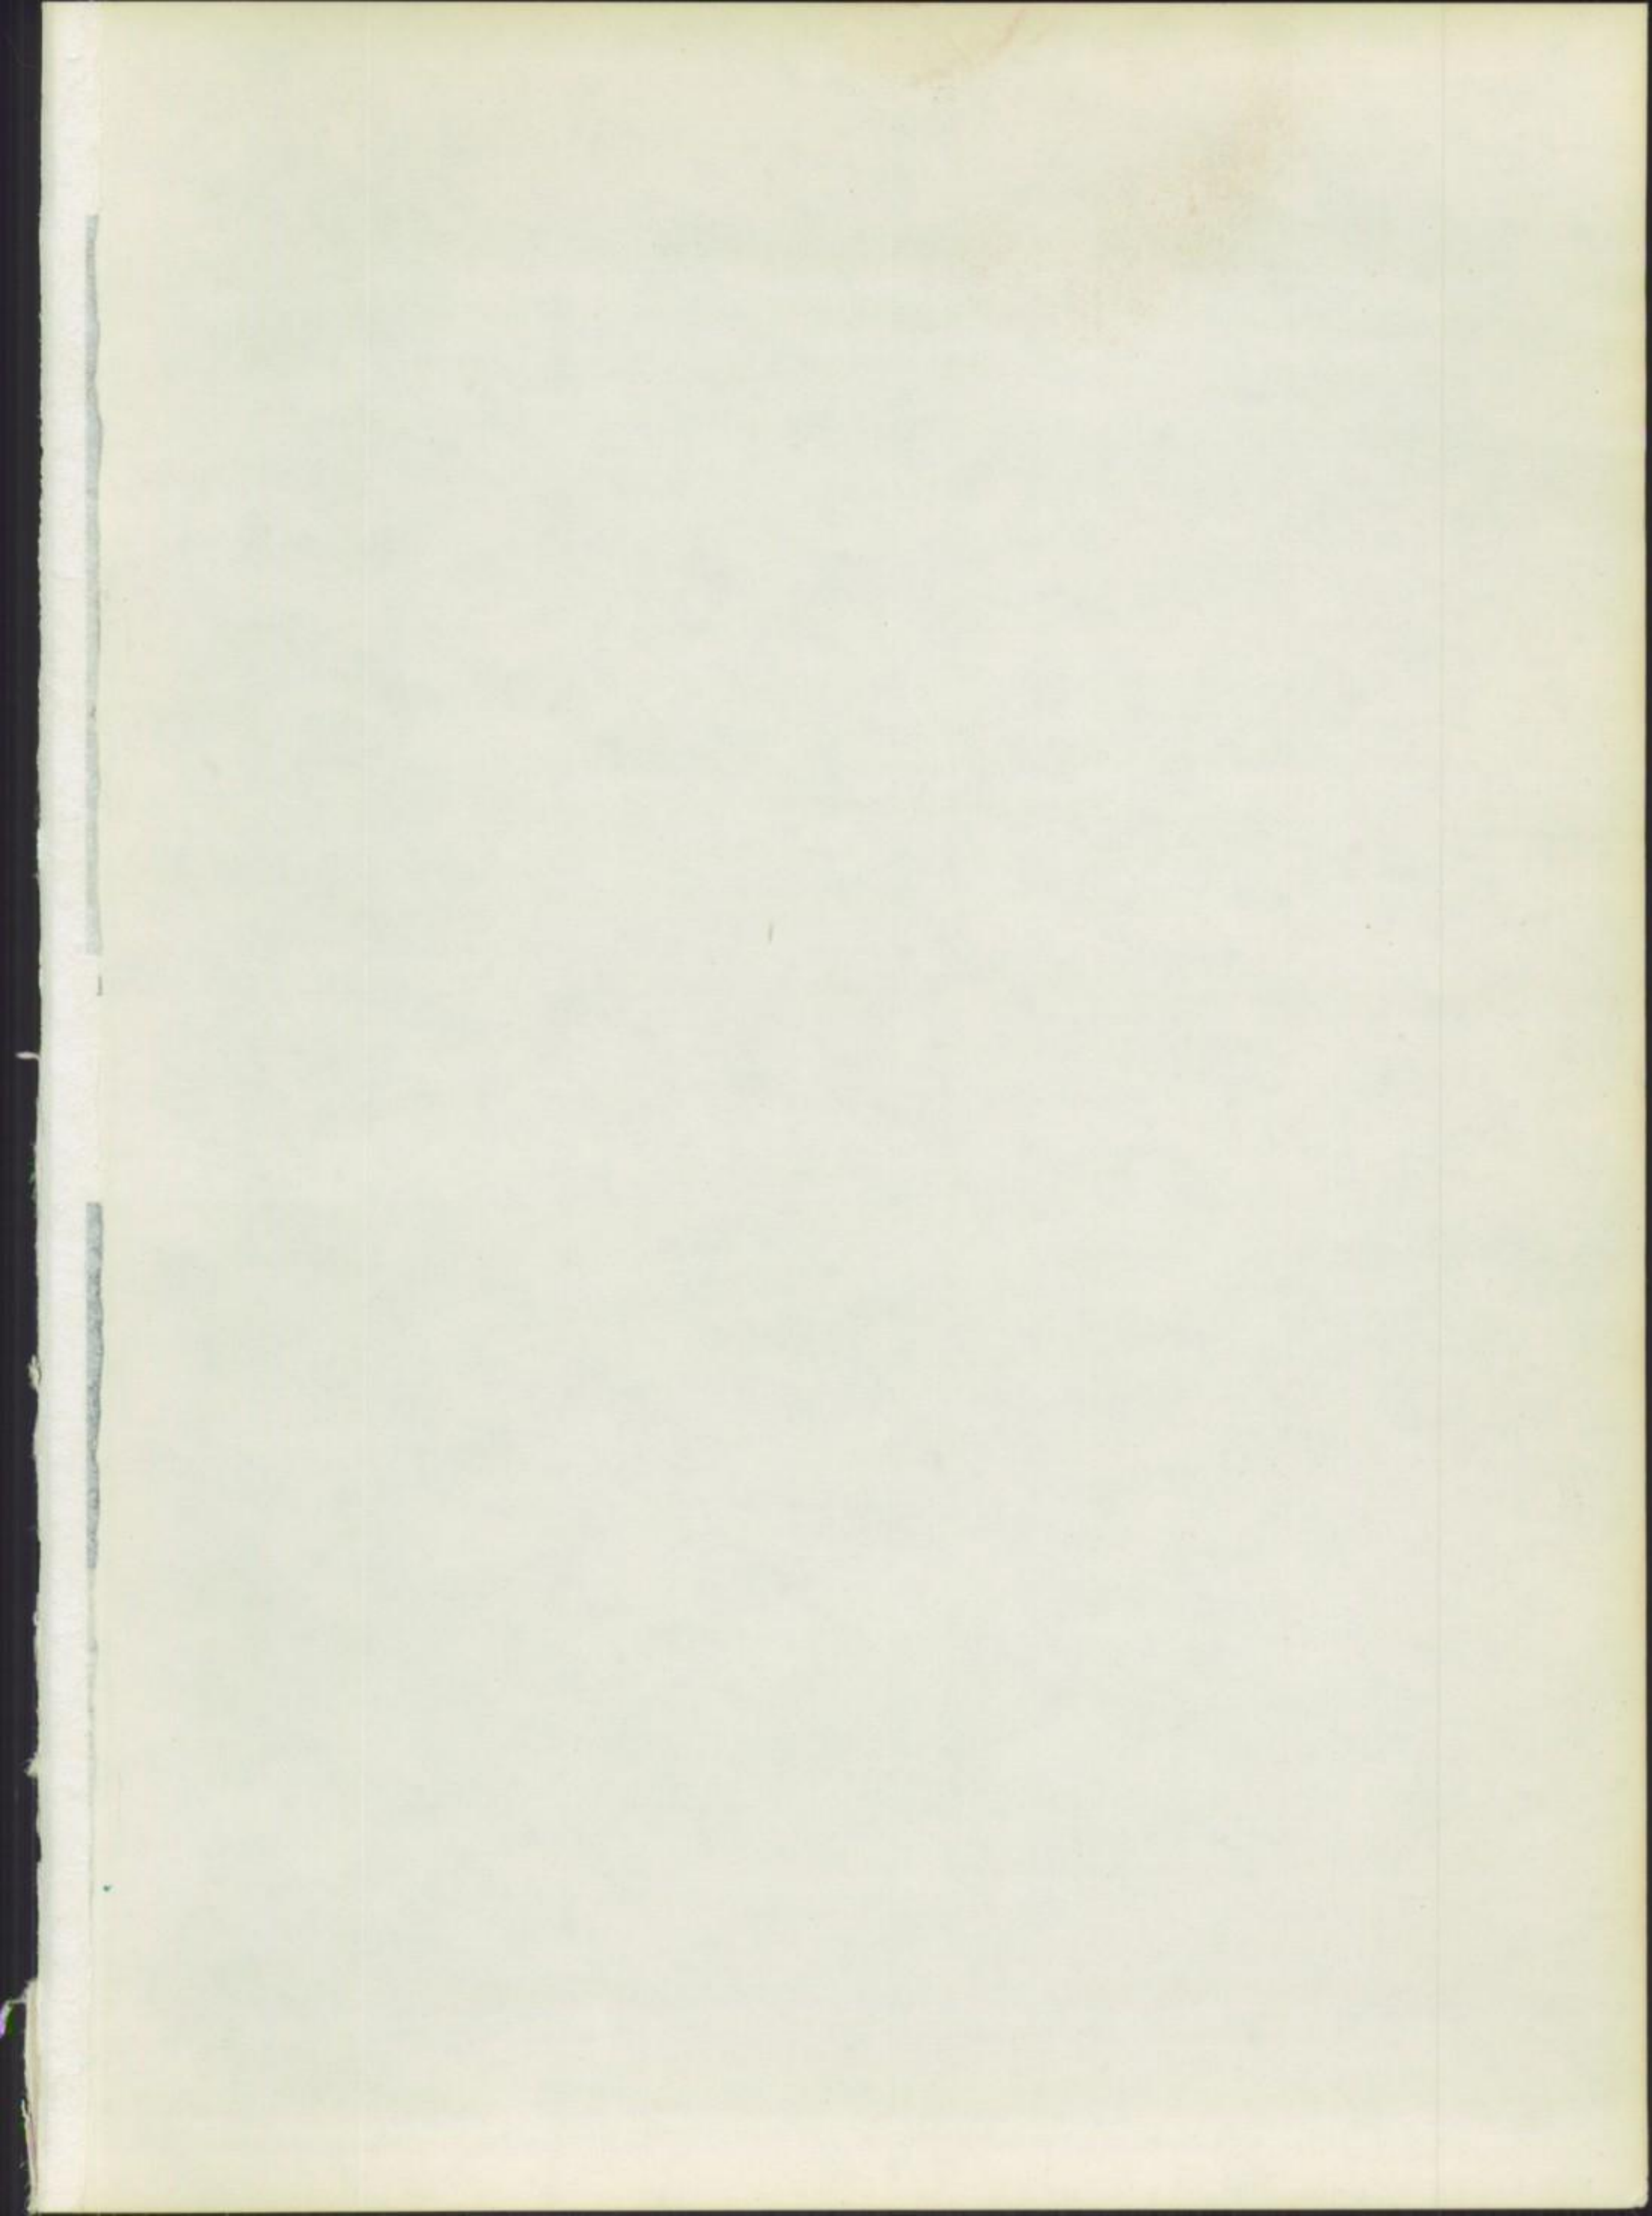

Laura Barnes, alias the "Pussy-cat" talks on her C.B.

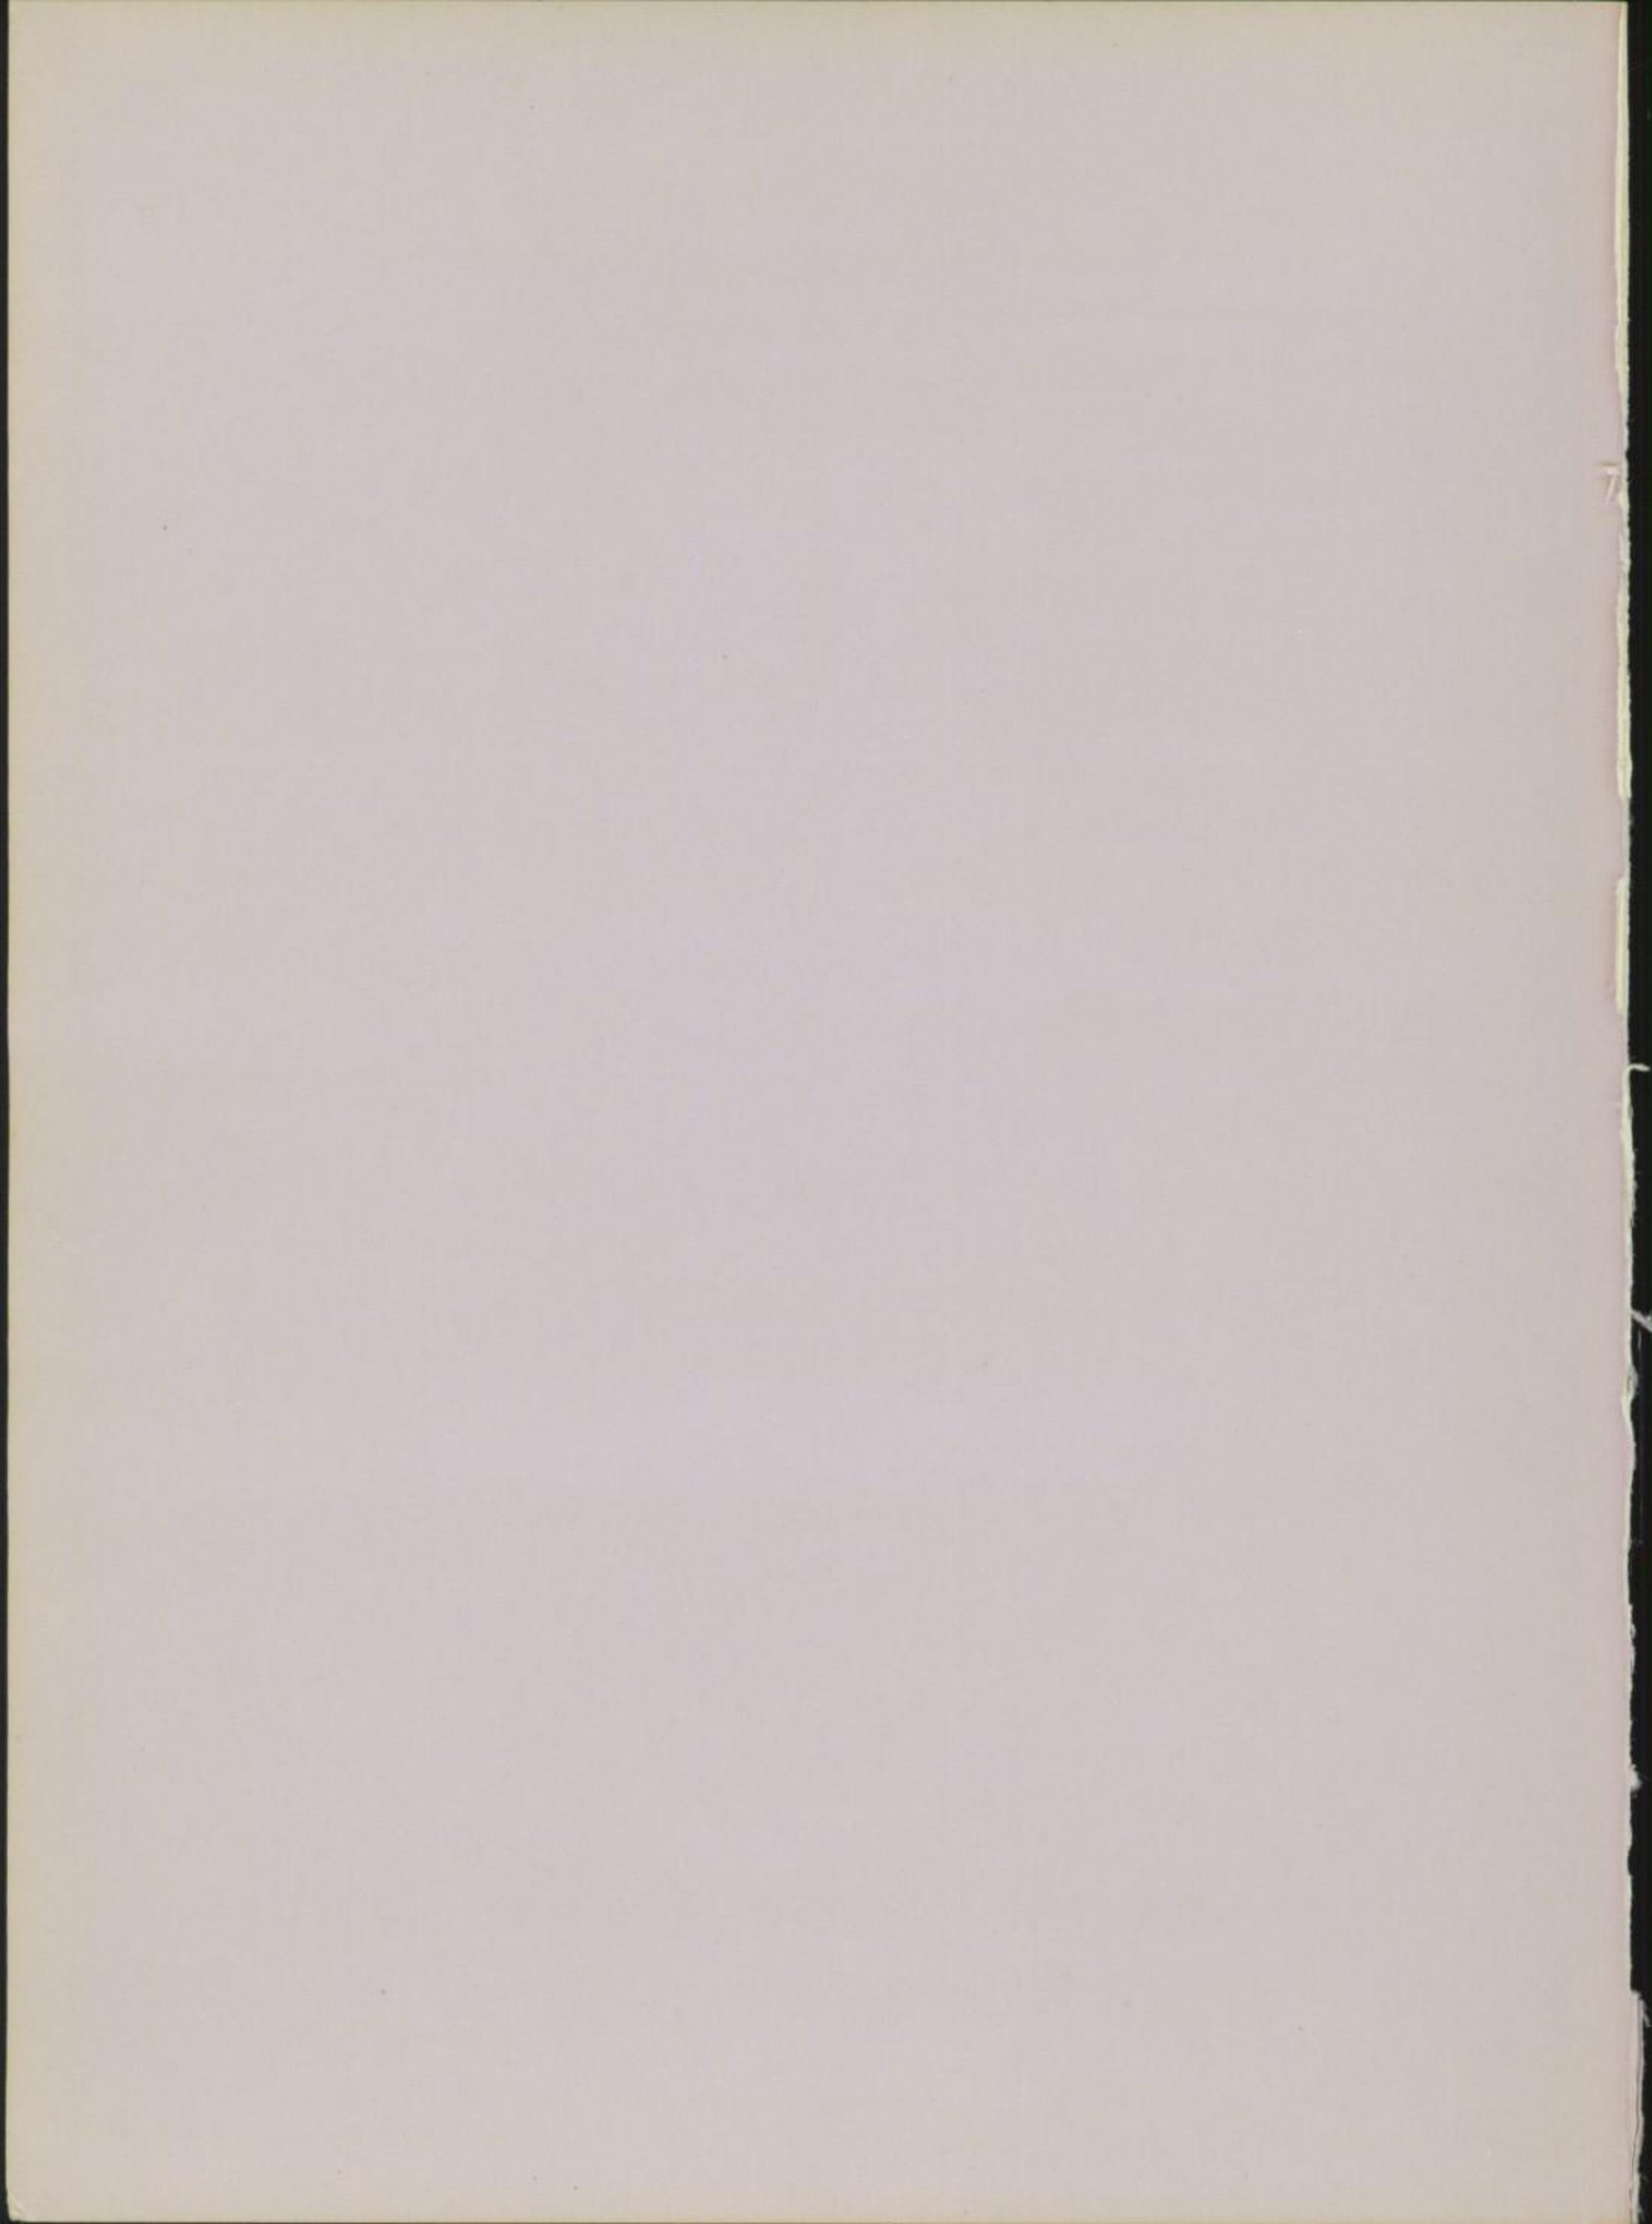

Mr. Kyler has so much school spirit that he is willing to stand in the hall all day and hold up the cheerleader's signs.

Jimmy Jackson prepares to make a call for someone on his C.B. C.B.'s are one of the newest fads going around this area.
